

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

December 30, 1961

CONFIDENTIAL

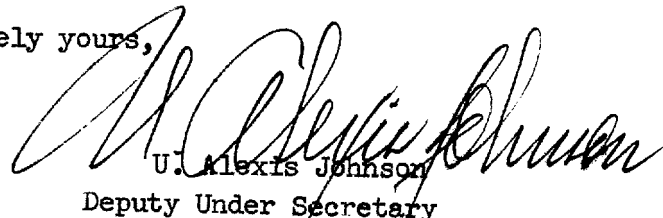

Dear Mr. McCone:

The President has established a special task force to prepare materials in support of the Eighth Meeting of Foreign Ministers at Montevideo, Uruguay, being held January 22, 1962. One of the principal duties of the task force is to draw up as complete and detailed a list as possible of all the instances of Cuban subversive or other interventionist activities in the other American Republics which we can use in strengthening our request for strong measures against Cuba.

For some time the CIA has been producing a periodic memorandum entitled, "Cuban Subversive Activities in Latin America." The Department of State is not in a position to determine which of the classified items listed in this publication could be declassified in order to meet the President's needs; and also which items are well enough documented factually to meet the critical eye of Latin Americans.

In order to strengthen our hand during negotiations and to provide raw materials for the members of the task force, who include particularly Arthur Schlesinger, Richard Goodwin, and Ernest Lindley, would you please cull through your materials and draw up as complete a list as possible of Cuban interventionist activities (including in it those classified cases which can be downgraded for public use), and also include with that list sufficient detail on each case so that we can make our position both factual and convincing.

Sincerely yours,

U. Alexis Johnson
Deputy Under Secretary

The Honorable
John McCone,
Director of Central Intelligence.
